

Happy Howlidays!

Here are some ways that you, as an employer, can help animals like Dixie and Jackson this Christmas.

-  Make a donation; whether this be in lieu of Christmas cards or from this year's charity pot, in return we will provide you with a personalised digital asset (featuring one of our furry residents) as a token of our gratitude, and for you to share with your staff, customers and followers.
-  Encourage your staff to fundraise – see overleaf for a few ideas to get started. Could you match fund what they raise? This means that for every £1 they raise, the company adds £1 to the pot.
-  Arrange a donation station to help us continue to provide food and other essential supplies to our pet foodbank users this Christmas.
-  Donate a percentage of your sales this Christmas – we'd love to help you promote this.

can buy a 12kg bag of dog food

£50

could feed four dogs for a week

£150

can spay or neuter a dog in our care

Do you have your own ideas that you'd like to discuss? Please get in touch on fundraising@edch.org.uk to get started – we can provide you with advice and materials and we will do all we can to share the news of your great work.

Feline Festive?

Here are some ways that you, as an employee, can help animals like Dixie and Jackson this Christmas.

-  Arrange a Christmas jumper or Christmas sock day – just as much fun in person or on Zoom!
-  Arrange a Secret Santa – could you donate some pet food for our pet foodbank instead of, or alongside, your Secret Santa gift?
-  Arrange a donation station to help us continue to provide food and other essential supplies to our pet foodbank users this Christmas.
-  Hold a festive doggy or human biscuit bake sale!
